

SATIN SILICONE WA

SILICONE EMULSION FOR HEATSET WEBS

DESCRIPTION:

The Satin Silicone WA is a nonionic emulsion of polydimethylsiloxane and other additives used in the heat-set web market to prevent marking and added slip for the folding operation. This product is diluted in water and is effective in a wide variety of print applications and contains a special slip agent to help it on all types of stocks. The Satin Silicone WA also contains agents to prevent growth in the application system.

BENEFITS OF SATIN SILICONE WA:

- Highly effective at various concentrations
- Eliminates fisheyes on applicator roller
- Easily diluted in water with mild agitation
- Will not cause discoloration
- Effective on all types of presses
- Contains added biocide

USES and DIRECTIONS:

- Heatset web presses
- Dilute to 5% to 15% to achieve desired results
- Easily dispersible into water

Dilute to required levels for proper product use/consult manufacturer

TECHNICAL DATA:

Appearance: White emulsion

VOC Content: None

Density: 0.99 g/ml

1100 N. Harvester Road
West Chicago, IL 60185

800-345-2541
info@centralink.com

CENTRALink
CORPORATION